The back panel should be screened with solid material for the full length of the 16' panel to prevent cattle from running in to it.

The pen may be located on either side of arena. It is best placed for best observation by time keeper and announcer.

The pen may be located on either side of arena. It is best placed for best observation by time keeper and announcer.